The opening of the National Interstate League was the feature of last week in local powling circles. The brilliant start made by the Brooklyns have led many to believe that they would regain the championship lost to the New Yorks last scason.

The work of the latter was disapdisting in the opening contests, but it is more than likely that the Gothamites will present a much stronger aggregation when they tackle the

The second series will take place to-night, when the New Yorks meet the Patersons and the Brooklyns visit Jer-sey City.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Several's good tournaments were faunched during the week, the most prominent being that of the Archdio-cesan Union. All the big Catholic clubs of the city have entered teams, and the series promises to be an inter-esting one. The Columbus Club took the lead in the second series played, and have maintained that position up to date, having played four games, win-ming them all.

The records for the bowlers in the tournament are as follows:

Men's Evening & Dress Clothes

Evening clothes that do not fit are as bad as none. Fit is the primal necessity. Then comes the consideration of style and cost. All these qualities are as you expect to find them in Vogel Brothers full dress suits and tuxedos. Formerly when men were forced to patronize custom tailors for evening clothes the prices charged made them a luxury. To-day our showing of evening clothes is so complete that even men out of the ordinary build can be fitted properly.
